

Strengthen Your Team: Building Operator Training

Building Operator Certification is a nationally recognized certification for commercial and institutional organizations with in-house operations staff. It provides practical instruction to improve daily operations, reduce energy waste and support long-term building performance goals.

Is This Training Right for You?

Participants should have relevant experience in any of the following:

- 2+ years in facility operations, maintenance or energy management; or
- 1 year in operations/maintenance and 1 year of technical college training

What You'll Learn

Level 1 Certification

- Efficient Operations of HVAC Systems
- Measuring and Benchmarking Energy
- Efficient Lighting Fundamentals
- HVAC Controls Fundamentals
- Indoor Environment Quality
- Common Opportunities for Low-Cost Operational Improvement

Level 2 Certification

- Building Scoping and Operational Improvements
- Optimizing HVAC Controls for Energy Efficiency
- Introduction to Building Commissioning
- Water Efficiency for Building Operators
- Project Peer Exchange

A Smart Investment in Your Facilities

- ✓ $1,000 registration discount for approved participants
- ✓ Up to 50% of training costs reimbursed after successful completion
- ✓ Facilities average $20,000 in annual energy cost savings

Enroll Now

866-527-5249

bizsolutions.energysaveNJ.com/BOC

